sing the disorders. OUTRAGES BY HUNGARIAN PEASANTS. VIENNA, Aug. 27 .- Violent riots against the Jews secured at Egerszeg, Hungary, a town on the Zala, seventy miles southwest of Roab, on last Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Two thousand peasants took part in the outbreak. They wrecked all the houses and shops of Jews in the place, and shouted Murder all Jews!"

Troops were called out, but were unable to suppress the violence of the mob until they were reinterced. The rioters also released a number of prisoners. The peasants were armed with muskets and stoutly resisted the troops. It is reported that twenty soldiers and many rioters were killed. A force of infantry and cavalry has been ordered to proceed to Egerszey from Buda-Pesth.

Rots against the Jews have also occurred at Churgo, Keszthely and Kanisa Nagy (Great Kanisa). At the last-named place troops had to be called out to suppress the disturbances.

THE RECENT TROUBLES IN RUSSIA. St. Petersburg. Aug. 27 .- Advices from Ekaterday, the scene of the recent riots against the Jews, say that 346 houses were wrecked and plundered during the progress of the riot, and that the losses sustained by Jews are estimated at 611,000 roubles. Fourteen of the Russians who were wounded by the troops in quelling the outbreak have since died, making the total number of persons killed twenty-eight.

Numerous cases of Jew-baiting are reported at places elsewhere than Ekaterinosiav, but the police and troops are acting with energy, and have in most instances promptly suppressed any attempts at outrages against the Jews. At Berchadi, however, eighty houses of Jews have been burned, and their former inmates are without shelter and suffering great privations.

FOREIGN RELATIONS OF FRANCE.

NEGOTIATIONS REGARDING ANAM.

PARIS, Aug. 27 .- A dispatch to the Figure from Saigon says M. Harmand, the French Civil Com-missioner, has gone to Hué at the special request of the Emperor of Anam, who is desirous of placing himself and the capital under French protection, as his position is most insecure. He nearly lost his life on the first day of the bombardment by the French of the forts and batteries at the mouth of the River Hué.

M. Harmand is provided with powers to negotiate with the Emperor, and is instructed to obtain from him a strict definition of the protectorate over Assum conferred on France by existing treaties. He is also instructed to demand that the Anamite bands encamped in Touquin be recalled imme-

DISASTERS TO VESSELS.

THE SINKING OF THE STEAMER WOODBURN. LONDON, Aug. 27 .- The captain of the tug Recovery, which was towing the steamer Woodburn when she was run into and sunk by the French steamer St. Germain, states that he had two bright lights at the tug's masthead, which was a clear ndication that she had a vessel in tow. The St. Germain, he says, ported her helm at the last mo ment, thus causing the collision. The damage to the St. Germain is so great that she will only be patched at Plymouth and will then be sent to France for final repair.

THE DAMAGE TO THE ST. GERMAIN. LONDON, Aug. 27 .- Further accounts of the t. Germain disaster state that the French steamer was ent that she had literally cut the Woodburn in tw below and above the water-line, but more so be low. From marks on the sides of the St. Germain it was and had passed right through her. It was also found that the St. German was filled with water to the lower bunks, from the fore-compartment to the fore-bulkhead forehold. This meant that there was quite one hu Gred and fifty tons of weight in the fore-compartment, and this dead weight had put the bows of the ship down quite seven feet, she drawing in her disabled con-dition twenty-eight feet six inches of water forward. With this immense quantity of water in the fore-hold the ship was only prevented from sinking by the holding out of the builth and

Regarding the cause of the disaster Captain William impson, of the Recovery, and Captain Ryan, the towning master, state that the St. Germain at first placed her clus so as to make it likely that one would clear both ressels. After running like this for some little distance his suddenly ported her neim, apparently with the insention of passing under the stern of the Recovery, thick probably seemed to be the only vessel she had to lear. Captain Ryan shouled out, "Starboard your clum. We have a sing astern of us in tow." The St. Jermain, however, took no notice of what Captain Ryan aid, but still continued to run dead on for the two cessels.

THE WINSTON TRAIN ROBBERY.

TESTIMONY OF "DICK" LIDDELL-ATTEMPT TO PROVE AN ALIBI FOR FRANK JAMES.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] GALLATIN, Mo., Aug. 27 .- There is no sign ret of waning interest in the James trial. The Opera-House this morning was again crowded with people excitedly awaiting the opening of the cross-examination of "Dick" Liddell, which began promptly at 8 o'clock, and was mainly directed to establish the defence's theory that the fifth man in the Winston robbery was "Jim" Cummings, and not Frank James. It was well revealed by the defence that they will endeavor to prove an alibi, General "Joe" shelby being the principal witness in that behalf. Among the new witnesses sworn for the defence was Mrs. Samuels, the prisoner's mother, who during the detectives' raid upon her residence years ago, lost her arm by the explosion of a hand grenade which they threw into her place. The cross-examination of Liddell was conducted by Colonel

The first thing brought out was the admission that the witness had been convicted and punished for horse stealing. The witness said he first joined the James gang in 1879, and it scattered about a month afterward, the witness decining to tell the reason why because would criminate him. The understanding is that he wished to avoid admitting his implication in the Glen dale robbery which preceded the scattering. The witness denied that in company with "Bill" Ryan and Jesse James be had met "Joe" Shelby in July, 1880, although he had done so the fall of that year. "On this occasion," said the witness. "Cummings and I were together. Jesse and Bill' were behind. We had separated that day to meet at Shelby's house. General was getting out hemp seed at the time."

Philips said to the witness: "Did not Shelby say to Jesse James 'two young men have been arrested for the Concordia Bank robbery and I don't believe they had anything to do with it '; and did not Jesse James point to you and say there is the man who hit the Dutch

The witness replied : " I heard no such conversation." While undergoing severe cross-examination regarding the conspiracy which culminated in the Winston robbery. the witness again detailed the whole story, his statemen of Saturday apparently being unshaken and an attempt to show a concert of action and a renearsal of testimon upon the part of witnesses for the State failing. The witness was asked why he and Frank James came to trade horses one day. He explained that Frank James wanted to go into a little town to buy something, and he wanted to ride a horse with a good title. The witness had bought and paid for his animal, which was the only horse that had not been stolen in the party. The witness denied having met "Jim" Cummings in the summer of the Winston train robbery. He denied that he had met General Joe Sheiby since the Winston robbery mutil he saw him in Kansas City last Monday. He also denied teiling "Joe" B. Childs, in Kansas City, that Frank James was not in the robbery, or telling Frank futt and J. B. Crewder that Frank James kind not been in the gang for five years. He would not talk about Wood Hite's death, which he is credited with having caused, but admitted he was in Ray County when it nappened. His subsequent surrender was the result of negotiations with flovernor Crittenden, conducted or Wirs. Bolios, sister of "Bob" Ford, who knied Jesse James. He surrendered to Sheriff Timberiako, wont with him to Kansas City, and tareed that if nothing was done to him he would reveal the secrets of the gang and assist in the capture of the James brothers. upon the part of witnesses for the State failing

THE ST. LOUIS SUNDAY LAW,

DECISION ADVERSE TO ADVOCATES OF TEMPER-

ANCE. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

St. Louis, Aug. 27 .- The temperance move ment here, as exemplified by the Downing law, received a severe set-back to day when Judge Noonan, of the Court of Criminal Correction, directed the jury in the Lemp case to deliver a verdict for the defendant, which was done. Lemp had been arrested under the Downing law on a charge of keeping his liquor.store open on Sunday, and the defence was based on the strength of a law day, and the defence was based on the strength of a law of 1857, which gave St. Louis the right after a general election to bleense a piace for the sale of refreshments, other than distilled liquors, on all days of the week. The liquor-design's counsel held that this law could not be suppreseded by the Downing law, and the Court took this view of it and so instructed the jury, who promptly rendered a verdict of "not guilty."

THE NEXT SPEAKERSHIP.

VIEWS OF A DEMOCRATIC POLITICIAN. THE REAL STRUGGLE SAID TO BE BETWEEN CAR-

LISLE AND RANDALL [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 .- A shrewd Demo ratic politician of National reputation, who is much in terested in the result of the contest for the Speakership and who has for some time been busy in collecting date several candidates, expresses the opinion that Mr It is understood that Mr. Carlisle, who is sojourning a the Waite Sulphur Springs, where he enjoys excellent opportunities to obtain trustworthy information from leading Democratic politicians from the Southern and Western States, holds the same opinion.

The caudidates in the order of their respective strength as to votes are put down as follows: Carlisle, Randall Cox and Springer. According to this Mr. Blackburn's chances do not seem to be worth mentioning. Mr after the second ballot, his supporters going to Carlisle, whose friends claim for him the almost undivided support of the Western Democrate on the third ballot. It is asserted that on the first ballot he will receive six of the nine Democratic votes from Indiana, and on the third ballot all of them. John E. Lamb, of the Terre Haute District, will, it is thought, vote once or twice for Randall and will then change to Carlisle, under the advice of Senator Voorhees, given at the request of ex-Senator McDonald, who is said to be warmiy interested in Mr. Carliste's success. McDonald's friends, it may be remarked, count on a solid Kentucky delegation in his favor at the National Con vention. Mesers. Holman and Mattson are counted for S. S. Cox on the first and second ballot:—Mr. Holman secause he has occupied a seat near Mr. Cox in the House and has listened to and enjoyed many of hi ite son made a pilgrimage to Green Castle to address the college students several mouths ago and was Mattson's guest. After the second ballot it is expected that both Holman and Mattson will transfer their votes to Car lisic. It is conceded that Mr. Randall is strong in Virginta and some of the other Southern States, althoug Mr. Carilsle counts on the support of a large majority of the Southern Representatives. To a considerable num ber of them, however, Mr. Randali's views respecting the tariff are not objectionable; many more of them remember- and admire the builded courage and tenacity shown by him in the memorable struggle when he led the minority in opposition to the Force bill, and time has not weakened their feelings of gratitude. Moreover Mr. Carlisle's friends are not oblivious of the fact tha Mr. Randall's candidacy is favored by some of the most influential Democratic newspapers in the South.

It appears that Messrs. Cox and Springer have been It appears that Messis. Cox and Springer have been writing letters to Representatives-elect—especially to those who were not members of the last House—soliciting their votes. One of the new members from a Southern State said a day or two ago, that he had not heard anything from Randall or Cardisle, but that both Springer and Cox had written him and asked for his support. He will vote for Cardisle. The friends of Mr. Cardisle believe that after the second or third ballot the struggle will be narrowed down to one between him and Mr. Randall, with the chances decidedly in favor of the former. They admit, however, that there is one element of uncertainty—and that is the votes of New-York, after 8. S. Cox drops out of the race. If Randall can secure a majority of those votes he will become a dangerous competitor, but the friends of the Kentucky candidate count upon the hostility of Cox to Randall to prevent such a contingency. They say it would be a "personal" affront" to Cox for any of his friends to go to Randall, and some of them believe that if he cannot turn over his votes to Cardisle an edort will be made to create a diversion in favor of some other New York man. The names of General Slocum and Mr. Dorsheimer are mentioned—the latter quite frequently—by Mr. Cardisle's most confidential friends, although it is said that the name of General Slocum is often favorably suggested in the West.

To sum up the result of the observations and investigations of the Democratic politician before mentioned, who is a Cardisle man, It appears that Cardisle leads the race naw, but in the end the winner will be the man who can secure the votes of New-York after S. S. Cox is out of the field. writing letters to Representatives-elect-especially to

NORTH CAROLINA POLITICS. THE REPUBLICAN PARTY SAID TO BE GAINING

[BT TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 .- Ex-Collector Canaday, of North Carolina, who is a candidate for Sergeantat-Arms of the United States Senate, was in Washington to-day. He says that the prospects of defeating the North Carolina Democrats in the Presidential contest of next year appear to be bright; that the Repub-licans and the Liberals have an understand-The transfer of his political allegiance by ex-Govern Holden to the Democratic party, Colonel Cana day says, is generally regarded as "a Republican

He intimated that within the next lew days the Democrats of North Carolina will be startled by the intelligence that several men who have been among the most able, skilful and popular leaders of the Democratic forces of the State have abandoned and repudiated the Democratic party and propose to work as zealously for its defeat hereafter as they have for its success in the past.

There are twelve Republican newspapers in the State, one of which, T. e Asherille News, advocates the nomination one of which, The Asheville News, advocates the nomination of Senator Blawley for President and Secretary Lincoln for Vice-President. Senator inwley is a native of North Carolina. It is expected that within a few days Dr. Mott, chairman of the Republican State Committee, will begin the publication of a Republican daily newspaper at Raleiga. Colonel Canaday thinks the Republicans will have no difficulty in electing their candidates for the vacancy caused by the death of Representative-elect Pool. of the 1st District, as the election will be held in the district as it stood before the redistricting law of last winter was enacted. That haw took away from the district a strong Republican county and substituted a strong Democratic county, but it will not be me operative until the regular election of next year. Colonel Canaday said there is considerable talk of functing Miles Commander, of Elizabeth City, as the Republican candidate for the vacancy.

RAIL WAY ACCIDENTS.

A COLLISION IN OHIO.

SEVERAL PERSONS INJURED AT MINGO JUNCTION WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 27 .- A collision occurred early this morning on the Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railroad about one mile west of Mingo Junction. Onto. The Cincinnati express going west and;a full speed on a curve where a high hillextends for a third of a mile. Both engines and four freight-cars were delished, and the mail and express cars of the passenge train were reduced to kindling-wood. The engineer of the passenger train, Charles Wolf, noticed the approach of the freight train and applied the air-brake and reversed his engine, but this had little effect before the freight-train, composed of thirty cars and coming down a grade, crashed into the passenger train. The passener-coaches and sleeping cars kept the track, and th passengers escaped with slight bruises. William Hoyt, of Indianapolis, a postal clerk, had aleg broken and his body so severely crushed that he will die. He was so surrounded by fragments of the cars that chopping was necessary to release him. J. B. Newman of Indianapolis, another postal clerk, was slightly injured. Charles Wolf, the engineer of the passenger tram, had one of his thumbs amputated and was severely bruised about the body and head. He will recover, J. T. Warson and A. N. Brown, of Indianapolis, both postal clerks, and Joseph Little, a colored porter, were in the postal-car, and were all slightly burt. The engineer of the freight train and both dremen jumped when they saw the danger. The accident resulted from the carelessness of Conductor Swaney, of the freight train. The passenger-train was ten minutes and the freight train thurty minutes late. The latter had telegraphic orders to go to Mingo not later than 1:13 a. m., but the conductor old not read the order and thought the operator said 1:30 a. m. The track is now cleared, and traine has been renewed. Indianapolis, another postal clerk, was slightly

Recently the Kava-naugh house was entered by the police and the mother and a younger daughter were sentenced to imprison-ment. Sarah Kavanaugh, however, escaped arrest, and ment. Saran Kavanaugh, however, escaped arrost, and entered on a life of debauchery which ended in her being prostrated with sickness on Wednesday last. She tay on a pallet of straw in one of the rooms of the house un-til she died entirely alone. There was no food o signs of it in the house. The girl's death must have been caused as much by starvation as by anything else.

THE CASH-ROOM OF THE TREASURY.

A DECLARATION THAT IT COULD BE ROBBED. WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 .- The Post will publish to-morrow an interview with Chief Brooks, of the Secret Service Bureau of the Treasury Department, Secret Service Bureau of the Treasury Department, in which he says that the säfeguards thrown about the money that is sent to the express office for singment are such that there is no possibility of a repetition of the Winslow robbers. Mr. Brooks is also quoted as having said in response to the question whether robberies from the cash-room were not impossible: "By no means. I often see openings which a thief, if he were there instead of me, would doubtless avail himself of. But there is a close watch kept for suspicious characters, and a successful attempt is, I think, improbable."

PROMOTIONS IN THE DEPARTMENTS. HOW THE CIVIL-SERVICE LAW WILL PROBABLY OPERATE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 .- Three prome were unde in the Treasury Department to-day by Acting-Secretary French, under the regulations in force before the passage of the Civil-Service act. There are said to be six or seven vacancies in the War Department, but only requisitions enough to fill three of them have as yet been made upon the Civil-Service Commission, and all of these are for the $1,000 class—the lowest grade of clerkship in the Department. In all of these cases the vaca originally occurred in the $1,200 grade, but prome were made along the line until the vacanoics existed in the lowest grade only. It is stated in the Departments that this mission regulating promotions are promulgated. In view of these facts the question has arisen what will become of those who have successfully passed the more difficult examination for the $1,200 grade.

come of those who have successfully passed the more difficult examination for the $1,200 grade.

In reply to inquiries Dorman B. Eaton said to-day that the commission has not met with serious obstacles and doesn't anticipate any that cannot be easily dealt with by those who framed the Civil Service rules and the Cashinet officers who examined and approved them. He admitted, however, that the applicants for $1,200 positions were far in excess of those for a lower grade and that they would have to take their chances with the rest, their success depending upon the class for which the heads of the different departments made requisitions. He thought that the rules for the regulation of promotion would not be promulgated until after the return of the Prevident and Caonet. The semperature was one of great importance and would have to be handled very carefully.

In the departments it is said that the difficulty will not be obtiated even when the promotion rules are promulgated and enforced. The secretaries will undoutedly prefer to fill a vacancy in the $1,200 grade by promoting a lower-class clerx, who can pass the necessary examination, rather than by selecting one of the four unknown persons whose names would be certified by the commission if a requisition will be made for appointments to the lowest grades in the departments, and that the successful competitors in the $1,200 craminations will be left unemployed unless their names are submitted for vacancies that may occur in the lower grades.

THE NEW-YORK POST OFFICE. AN ADDITIONAL ALLOWANCE FOR CLERK HIRE AP-

PLIED FOR. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Washington, Aug. 27.—Postmaster Pearson has made an official application to the Department for an additional allowance for clerk hire in the New-York Post Office. Applications of this sort are sent to the First Assistant Postmaster-General, who, after an ex-amination, submits them to the Postmaster-General for his action. Mr. Hatton has not yet counidered the ap-plication of Postmaster Pearson, but will probably do so plication of Postmaster Pearson, but will probably do so and submit it with his recommendations to the Postmaster-General this weak. The additional amount asked for is $29,000. When General Gresham began the warfare against the circular delivery companies, several months ago, he said that he should do everything in his power to give the people of New-York ail the postal facilities necessary in so great a city, so that there would be no excuse for them to resort to unlawful competitors of the Post Office Department. The First Assistant Postmaster-General has said that his main objection to the reduction of letter-postage was a desire to improve the present postal facilities. As the additional allowance asked by Pestmaster Pearson would have to be taken from the revenues of tae New-York Post Office there seems to be good reason to believe that it will be granted, in view of the expressed desire of the Postmaster-General and his assistant to improve the service and furnish all needul postal facilities.

COLORED MEN DISCONTENTED. A MOVEMENT ON FOOT FOR SEPARATION FROM THE

WHITES, [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 .- John W. Niles, a colored citizen of Arkaussas, has arrived in Washington to solicit aid for a movement in which he says the people of his race in the South are deeply interested. He brought letters of introduction to Professor Greener, Frederick Douglass and several other prominent men in Washington, signed by the president and secretary of an organization styled the "Colored National Indemnity Association of Arkansas." The object of the organiza-Association of Arkansas." The object of the organiza-tion, Mr. Niles says, is to acquire a title to and exclu-sive possession of a large territory in one or more of the Southern States, where the colored people can be per-mitted to govern themselves in peace. He represents that there is widespread discontent among them throughout the cotton States, caused by the fact that throughout the cotton states, caused by the fact that they are in a great measure deprived of their political and civil rights. Mr. Nikes asserts that secret organizations like the one he represents are springing into existence in all those States, and that the cry of the negroes now is "separation," instead of "Emigration." The ame plan was publicly advocated by another Arkansas colored man at a meeting in Washington two or three weeks ago, but it was not received with much favor by his colored auditors.

Art. Nikes has enferred a complaint at the Post Office Department that his mail has been intercepted in Arkansas on account of his activity in the "separation" movement, and he asserts that the postal service in that State requires a thorough investigation.

THE GARFIELD MEMORIAL HOSPITAL. DENIAL OF THE REPORT THAT THE PLAN HAS BEEN

ABANDONED. WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 .- Astatement has recently been published to the effect that the plan of establishing a Garfield Memorial Hospital in this city has been abandoned for lack of support and that the money thus far contributed for that purpose will be turned over to the Garfield Monument Fund. Thomas Fisher, or the Garfiela Hospital Board, said to-day that the report of the abandonment of the hospital scheme was entirely without foundation. "The Board," he said, "has purchased the L. H. sennelder property, at the head of Tenth-st., on the elevation overlooking the city, for $38,000, and obtained elevation overlooking the city, for $38,000, and obtained possession of it on Augus 1. There is a fine double briok house on the place, with out-buildings and nearly seven acres of grounds. It is the intention of the Board to begin the erection of a wing to the house to cost $15,000, and Dr. J. S. Builings will superintend the work. The hospital will be open for the reception of patients soon. The Board has the money to mark to pay for these improvements, and is in earnest about this matter."

A SURGEON-GENERALSHIP IN DISPUTE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—In 1879 there was a vacancy in the office of Surgeon-General and Chief of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery in the Navy, and flerce was the struggle for the place among med officers belonging to that branch of the public service. The prize was won by Medical Inspector Philip S. Wales, who was appointed Surgeon-General on August 1, 1879. The appointment was bitterly opposed by several sur-geons who were Dr. Wales's seniors in rank, and they waged war against his confirmation by the Senate. They were defeated, and on January 20, 1880, Dr. Wales received his commission for four years. The present aspirants for the place, who comprise all aspirants for the place, who comprise all the medical officers of the Nary senior to Dr. Wales, contend that his term expired on August 1, four years from the date of his original appointment, and that all official acts performed by him since that date are likeral. Surgeon-feneral Wales insists that unless sooner removed by the President, his term of office will not expire moved by the President, his term of office will not expire until January 20, 1884, four years from the date of his commission. He is a candidate for reappointment.

There is some talk of an effort to have the queedon as to when Dr. Wales's term expires referred to the Attorney-General for ins opinion, massimen as this is the first controversy of the sort that has ever arisen in the naval service.

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE.
